President Sergey Bubka visits Jeonbuk 2023 competitors

IMGA President, Sergey Bubka, paid special visits to competition venues across the region to meet athletes and volunteers alike. He conversed with athletes from across the world to get their perspective and feedback on the Games. While doing so, he experienced first-hand the top level venues and electric, family-friendly atmosphere that brings these athletes together to celebrate Masters sport.

Father follows in daughter's footsteps in Archery

In the midst of the global COVID-19 pandemic, many people sought out new experiences and challenges to keep themselves stimulated. Parimi Srinivas Chowdary from India found his inspiration in his daughter's journey into the world of archery. Little did he know that this decision would lead him to become a remarkable archer himself and take part in the 2023 Asia Pacific Masters Games held in Jeonbuk.

Olympic reporter Nick Hope shines in Jeonbuk, winning 4 medals

Having previously visited South Korea on multiple occasions to report on Olympic events, Nick Hope expressed his gratitude for finally getting the opportunity to compete himself in this vibrant country. Delighted with the overall experience, Hope highlighted the fantastic atmosphere, unwavering support from fellow athletes, and the joyful camaraderie shared among participants.
